Northwestern Michigan Chapter, MOAA Scholarship Program

Serving the Children of Military Families, the Military, and Military Veterans Through Scholarships

Achieving Your Goals Through Education

Mission Statement

Northwestern Michigan Chapter, MOAA's scholarship program is established to provide monetary awards to qualified applicants pursuing undergraduate or graduate degrees from an accredited college or university or post-secondary certificates from a community college or accredited technical institute. Applicants must be children or grandchildren (under age 24) of an Active, Reserve, National Guard, or Retired military member from one of the eight uniformed services, or a MOAA member. Veterans who were honorably discharged within the past three years are also eligible for a scholarship award. Veterans must be pursuing higher education degrees at an accredited college or university, or job-training and professional certification programs at accredited post-secondary schools.

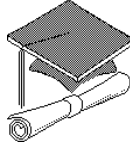

Purpose

To provide scholarship awards, the Northwestern Michigan Chapter's Scholarship Selection Committee will recommend for approval to the Chapter's Board of Directors those applicants deemed qualified to receive a scholarship award. Selectees who meet or exceed award criteria through a competitive process and are Board approved will receive a monetary award in an amount to be determined by the Board of Directors. Award criteria are listed on the Application Form. Monetary awards will be designated specifically for academic uses such as tuition and relevant charges like course-related lab and computer fees and required books.

Donations

Donations may be made by anyone including members, non-members, businesses, organizations, and foundations. Scholarship donations made to Northwestern Michigan Chapter, MOAA are tax deductible and exempt status under IRC 170(c)(3) of the US Tax Code as an IRC 501(c)(19) Veterans' Organization.
